Bulletin Deadline
Monday, 12:00 noon

FROM THE PASTOR:

During the first month of the new year, the parish staff has been looking ahead to make plans for the next twelve months. One of the matters considered has been all-night Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. We have decided to schedule nocturnal Adoration approximately every two months. In each case, Adoration will begin with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Saturday at 7:00 p.m., and continue through the night, ending with Benediction at 7:00 a.m. on Sunday. The dates for 2022 will be February 12-13; April 9-10; June 11-12; August 13-14; October 8-9; December 10-11. Of course, there will be reminders closer to the date. We're grateful to those who made this possible by their commitment to Adoration, especially during the early hours of the morning.

The Gospel this Sunday tells the story of Jesus working His first miracle at the wedding feast in Cana. This story is a kind of continuation of the celebration of the Epiphany of the Lord, observed two Sundays ago, and the Baptism of the Lord, observed last Sunday. In fact, in the liturgical tradition of the Church, these three mysteries were previously observed on the same day, in a single feast. This explains the remarks of the famous bishop and preacher, St. Peter Chrysologus (380-c. 450):

"Today the Magi find, crying in a manger, the one they have followed as he shone in the sky. Today the Magi see clearly, in swaddling clothes, the one they have long awaited as he lay hidden among the stars...

Today Christ enters the Jordan to wash away the sin of the world. John himself testifies that this is why he has come: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Today a servant lays his hand on the Lord, a man lays his hand on God, John lays his hand on Christ, not to forgive but to receive forgiveness...

Today Christ works the first of his signs from heaven by turning water into wine. But water has still to be changed into the sacrament of his blood, so that Christ may offer spiritual drink from the chalice of his body..."

The words of the Bishop of Ravenna remind us that, even though we have concluded our celebration of the Christmas season, we continue to grow in understanding of the meaning of the mystery of the Incarnation and the presence of Jesus Christ in the sacraments. In the liturgy of Ordinary Time, we contemplate the Baby of Bethlehem grown to full manhood, carrying out His ministry in the sight of all, most of whom look on uncomprehending. Before long, we will enter Lent and consider how Christ's ministry will culminate at the Cross. If Christmas has taught us to look on Christ with wonder, we will be able to continue to do so as we see Him continue to reveal His glory from one Sunday to the next.

Sincerely Yours, in Christ,
Fr. Thomas Buffer

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Sunday, February 13, at 5:00 p.m., there will be an organ concert at Sacred Hearts Church in Cardington, based on the theme of St. Valentine's Day. Angela Carbetta and Fr. Buffer will perform.

PRAYER REQUEST LINE:

For a prayer request for the Prayer Line, please call Ellen Distel at 740-389-4551 or Dominga at the Parish Office at 740-382-2118 or email office@marionstmary.org.

DEL PÁRROCO:

Durante el primer mes del año nuevo, el personal de la parroquia ha estado buscando con anticipación hacer planes para los próximos doce meses. Uno de los asuntos considerados ha sido la adoración del Santísimo Sacramento toda la noche. Hemos decidido programar la adoración nocturna aproximadamente cada dos meses. En cada caso, la adoración comenzará con la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento el sábado a las 7:00 p.m., y continuará toda la noche, terminando con Benedicción a las 7:00 a.m. el domingo. Las fechas para 2022 serán del 12 al 13 de febrero; 9 al 10 de abril; 11 al 12 de junio; 13 al 14 de agosto; 8 al 9 de octubre; 10 al 11 de diciembre. Por supuesto, habrá recordatorios más cercanos a la fecha. Estamos agradecidos a aquellos que hicieron esto posible por su compromiso con la adoración, especialmente durante las primeras horas de la mañana.

El Evangelio de este domingo cuenta la historia de Jesús haciendo su primer milagro en la fiesta de las bodas en Caná. Esta historia es una especie de continuación de la celebración de la Epifanía del Señor, observada hace dos domingos, y el Bautismo del Señor, observado el domingo pasado. De hecho, en la tradición litúrgica de la Iglesia, estos tres misterios fueron observados previamente el mismo día, en una sola fiesta. Esto explica las observaciones del famoso Obispo y predicador, San Pedro Crysologus (380-c. 450):

"Hoy los Magos encuentran, llorando en un pesebre, al que han seguido mientras brillaba la estrella en el cielo. Hoy los Magos ven claramente, con ropa de pañales, aquel que esperaban mucho tiempo mientras estaba escondido entre las estrellas...

Hoy Cristo entra en el Jordán para lavar el pecado del mundo. Juan mismo testifica que por eso ha venido: He aquí el Cordero de Dios, he aquí el que quita los pecados del mundo. Hoy un siervo pone su mano sobre el Señor, un hombre pone su mano sobre Dios, Juan pone su mano sobre Cristo, no para perdonar, sino para recibir perdón...

Hoy Cristo trabaja la primera de sus señales del cielo convirtiendo agua en vino. Pero el agua todavía tiene que ser cambiada en el sacramento de su sangre, para que Cristo pueda ofrecer bebida espiritual del cáliz de su cuerpo..."

Las palabras del Obispo de Ravenna nos recuerdan que, aunque hemos concluido nuestra celebración de la temporada de Navidad, seguimos creciendo en la comprensión del significado del misterio de la Encarnación y la presencia de Jesucristo en los sacramentos. En la liturgia del Tiempo Ordinario, contemplamos al Bebé de Belén crecido a la plena hombría, llevando a cabo su ministerio a la vista de todos, la mayoría de los cuales miran sin complicaciones. Ya muy pronto entraremos en Cuaresma y consideraremos cómo el ministerio de Cristo culminará en la Cruz. Si la Navidad nos ha enseñado a mirar a Cristo con maravilla, podremos seguir haciéndolo mientras lo vemos continuando revelando su gloria de un domingo a otro.

Su hermano en Cristo,
Padre Thomas Buffer

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptism welcomes us into the Catholic Faith. Parents must participate in a Pre-Baptismal class to more fully understand and better appreciate this first Holy Sacrament. St. Mary offers this instruction four times a year. Preregistration for the class is required. Call the Office of Religious Education at 740-382-2262 or email religiouseducation@marionstmary.org to preregister or if you have any questions. Families may schedule Baptisms by calling the Rectory at 740-382-2118.

EL SACRAMENTO DE BAUTISMO

El bautizo es el inicio de nuestra Vida Católica y es el sacramento más importante que recibimos. Si es que su niño es menor de 7 años, y desea bautizarlo, los padres y padrinos deben atender a una clase Pre-Bautismal. Nuestra Iglesia Santa María ofrece estas clases 4 veces al año.

Para más información o si tiene alguna pregunta, por favor llamar a la Sra Evelyn 860-997-0627.
